Find Your Way Along
North Carolina's
Oldest Self-Guided Heritage Driving Trail

Taking the Historic Albemarle Tour, which winds through northeast North Carolina, is like encountering pages from a history book that teach us volumes about the present. It's a story of growth and change... of wilderness walks and uncharted horizons...a multi-dimensional register of mankind that adds to our sense of place. It shows us who we are, where we came from and where we're going.

Since 1975, the tour has helped thousands of people follow in the footsteps of Indians and colonists, soldiers and enslaved, sea captains and pirates.

You, too, can study North Carolina's history by seeing it. To travel through time, just follow the signs. See you on the HAT!
